

The biomass system

Wood chips and pellets are transported to the Community Energy Centre where they are combusted at a high heat. The energy produced is used to heat the water that then travels through the community energy system to the various buildings.

A tandem roll-off bin truck will visit the Energy Centre every three days to load and unload the storage bin and residue bin. There will be some noise during load and unload typically heard with trucks and moving metal bins.

Further information

call: 780-449-5514 email: scutilities@strathcona.ca