

Census Made Simple Release 2

Age and Sex Counts

Age and Sex Distributions

Census Made Simple Release 2

Age and Sex Counts

Historic Population by Age Group

Average Age

	2006	2011	2016
Strathcona County	37.8	39.1	39.2
Alberta	36	36.5	37.8
Canada	39.5	40.6	41

Census Made Simple Release 2

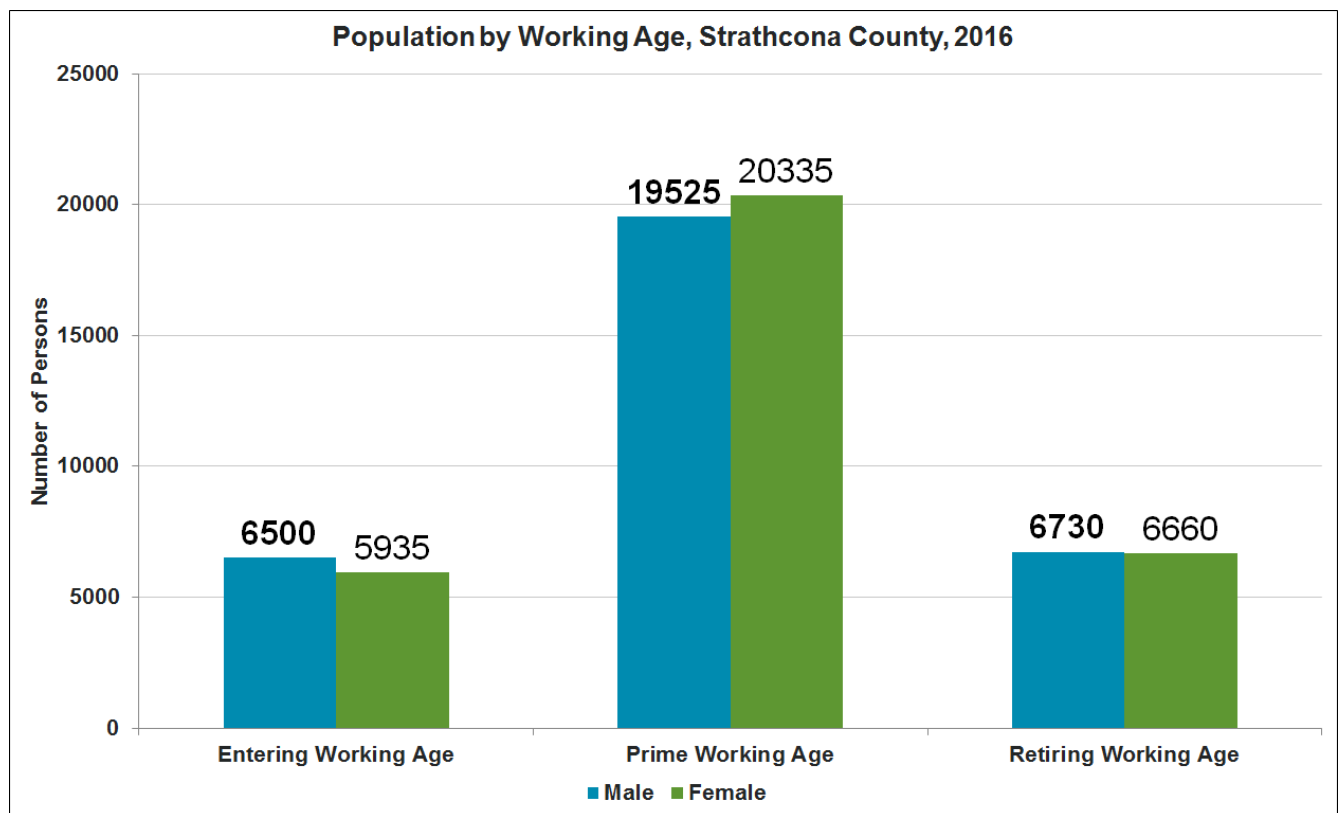

Age and Sex Counts

Quick Facts

- The distribution of age and gender shows the largest age group as 50 to 54 years of age followed by 55 to 59. Females outnumber males in the older age groups 65 and over. Males outnumber females in the younger age group (19 and under).
- The estimated average age of residents in Strathcona County is 39.2 years of age. In comparison to 2011, this has increased since 2011. When compared to the rest of the Edmonton CMA, Alberta and Canada, Strathcona County has a higher average age.

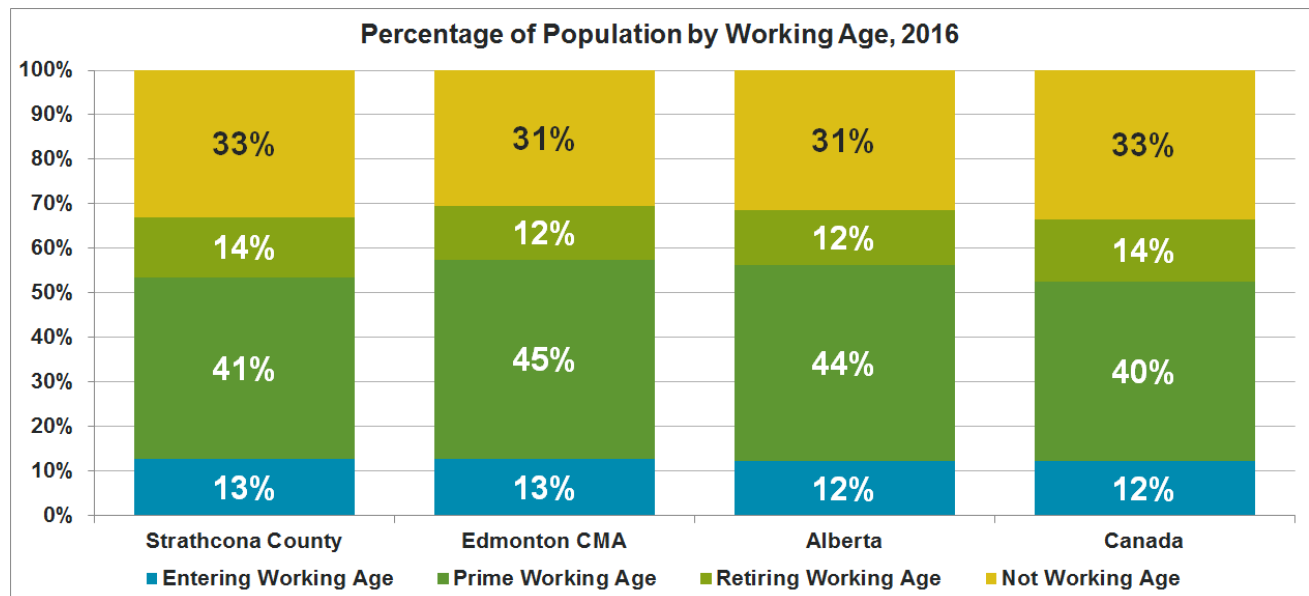

Population by Working Age and Gender

Census Made Simple Release 2

Age and Sex Counts

Percentage of Population by Working Age

Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) defines three standard working age groups: people aged 15 to 24 (those just entering the labour market following education); people aged 25 to 54 (those in their prime working lives); people aged 55 to 64 (those passing the peak of their career and approaching retirement).

Quick Facts

- The distribution of working ages shows that the largest working age group as 25 to 54 years of age. Since 2006 this group has increased by 3,275 working age residents.
- In comparison to the average proportion of Canada's population, Strathcona County has a larger proportion of prime working age group at 41%. Since 2006, this group has increased by 9%.
- In total, Strathcona County has 39,860 prime working age residents. As of 2016, residents entering/within a retirement working age outnumbered residents entering/within the working age.