

Census Made Simple Release 13

Journey to Work

Main Mode of Commuting

- Out of the total employed labour force in Strathcona County in 2016, 42,445 workers drove a car, truck, or van as their main mode of commuting to work.
- When compared to the Edmonton CMA, Alberta, and Canada, Strathcona County had the highest percentage of their total labour force driving a car, truck, or van as their main mode of commuting to work (88%) and the lowest percentage of their labour force commuting by public transit (5%).

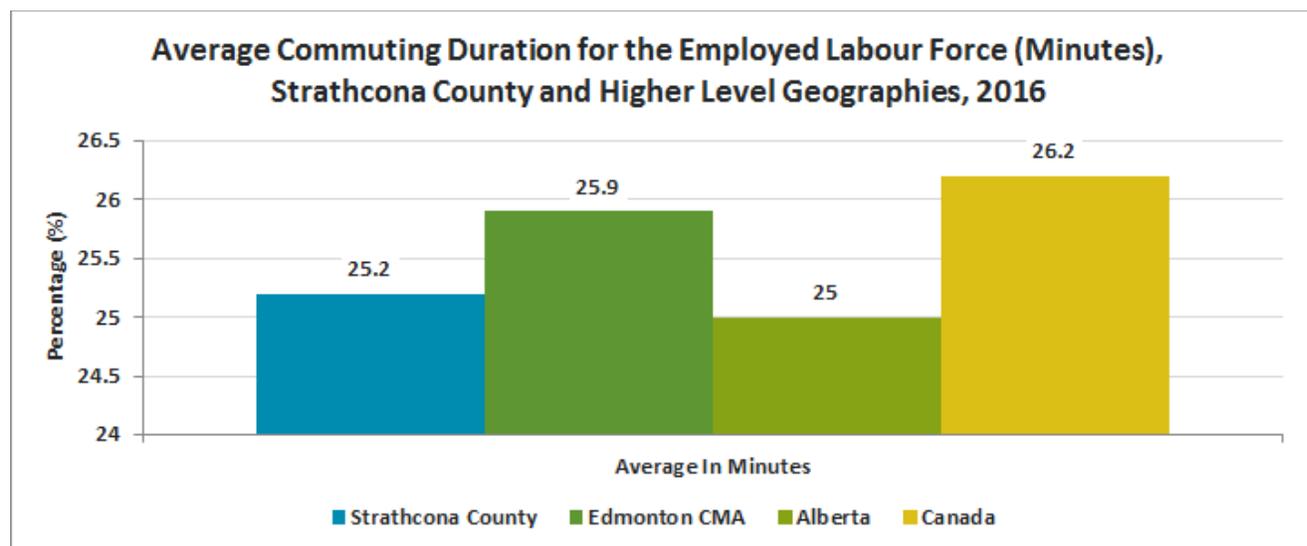

Census Made Simple Release 13

Journey to Work

Average Commute Time

- In 2016, the average commuting time to work for Strathcona County's employed labour force was 25.2 minutes.
- When compared to the Edmonton CMA, Alberta, and Canada, Strathcona County had the second fastest commuting time average, after Alberta (25 minutes).
- Strathcona County's commuting time was one minute shorter, on average, than that of Canada.

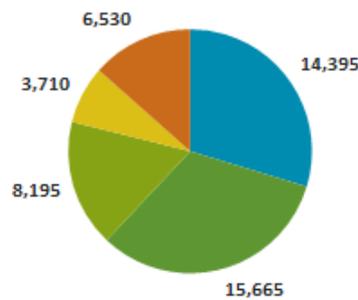

Census Made Simple Release 13

Journey to Work

Time Leaving for Work

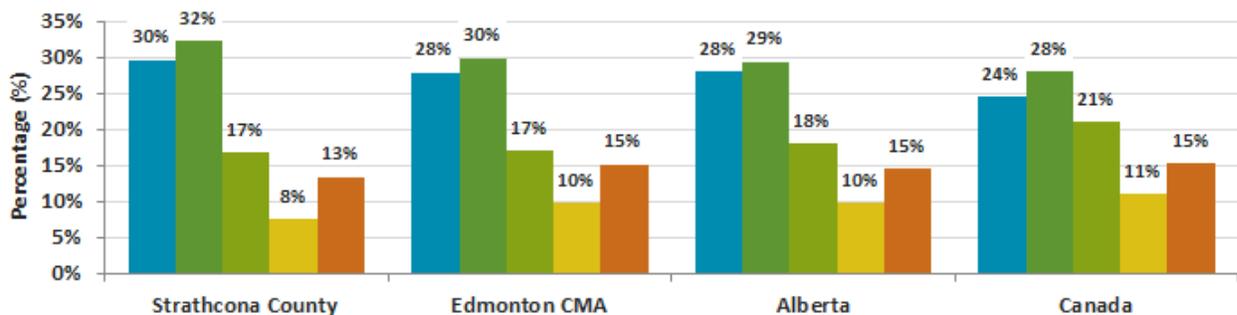

- In 2016, the majority (approximately 30%) of Strathcona County's employed labour force left for work between 7 a.m. and 7:59 a.m.
- The least popular time to leave for work in Strathcona County was between 9 a.m. and 11:59 a.m.
- The employed labour force in Strathcona County, Edmonton CMA, Alberta, and Canada all followed similar times to each other when leaving for work.

Employed Labour Force By Time Leaving For Work, Strathcona County, 2016

■ Between 5 a.m. and 6:59 a.m.
 ■ Between 7 a.m. and 7:59 a.m.
 ■ Between 8 a.m. and 8:59 a.m.
■ Between 9 a.m. and 11:59 a.m.
 ■ Between 12 p.m. and 4:59 a.m.

Employed Labour Force (%) By Time Leaving For Work, Strathcona County and Higher Level Geographies, 2016

■ Between 5 a.m. and 6:59 a.m.
 ■ Between 7 a.m. and 7:59 a.m.
 ■ Between 8 a.m. and 8:59 a.m.
■ Between 9 a.m. and 11:59 a.m.
 ■ Between 12 p.m. and 4:59 a.m.

Census Made Simple Release 13

Journey to Work

Place of Work Status

- In 2016, 41,710 (79%) of the total employed labour force in Strathcona County worked at their usual place of work. Having no fixed workplace address was the second most popular place of work.
- The majority of the employed labour force in Strathcona County, Edmonton CMA, Alberta, and Canada worked at their usual place of work.

