Strathcona County’s Agricultural Service Board (ASB) invites kids in grades 3, 4 and 5 to enter its annual poster contest!

The theme of the 2013 poster contest is:

“What do farmers grow?”

The contest encourages children to think about the importance of agriculture and how it links to them, whether they live on a farm, acreage or in town. Children have an opportunity to win prizes as well as express their ideas about the agriculture community.

Prizes: 1st place . . . . $100
2nd place . . . . $75
3rd place . . . . $50

The winning posters will be published in various County publications and on the County website.
