How will my application be evaluated?

Applications for Arts Development/Program Project Grants will be evaluated by independent jurors in a peer assessment system. Peer assessment implies the use of practicing artists, arts professional and others who are knowledgeable and active in the local/regional arts community within the particular discipline they are asked to jury. Each committee will consist of three to five members who will assess the applications according to the grants criteria. By consensus, jurors will arrive at recommendations on the amount of grants.

Strathcona County will be responsible for the selection of jurors and will be continually researching and adding names of qualified people to the juror database. The arts community, organizations and individuals are encouraged to recommend qualified names to the database.

Prior to being appointed to a committee, jurors will be asked to declare any potential conflicts of interest due to relations with the grant applicants.

Financial

Approved funding can only be used as detailed on the application. In the case of a change to the original application, such as a cancellation or change in programming, the applicant must submit a letter of explanation requesting approval of a change in the use of the grant. In the event that an approval is not received, the funding or balance of funding must be returned to Strathcona County.

Strathcona County Recreation, Parks and Culture may request access to all financial statements and records of the applicant organization should the need arise.
